Winter Wings Festival 2009

February 13-15

Field trips and other observations during the Winter Wings Festival in 2009 recorded 82 species and hundreds of thousands of individual birds. In addition to the large number of Bald Eagles, other raptors, and various waterfowl, particular highlights included Cackling Goose, Eurasian Wigeon, Redhead, Red-breasted Merganser, Swainson's Hawk, Ferruginous Hawk, Golden Eagle, Merlin, Sandhill Crane, Loggerhead and Northern Shrikes, Lapland Longspur, Tricolored Blackbird, and Evening Grosbeak. With more field trips and other activities slated for Sunday during the 2010 festival, these numbers can be expected to go up! Join us in observing and recording the diversity and abundance of bird life in the Klamath Basin of Oregon and California during Winter Wings Festival 2010, February 12-14.
